Indxx Flexible Workplace Index Licensed to Meitav Tachlit Mutual Funds Ltd. for an Index Tracking Fund

New York - September 15, 2020 - Indxx is pleased to announce that the Indxx Flexible Workplace Index (the "Index"), has been licensed to Israel-based Meitav Tachlit Mutual Funds as the underlying benchmark for an index tracking fund (Tel Aviv: 05131776), which began trading on the Tel-Aviv Stock Exchange last week.

The Index (Ticker: IFWINT), is designed to track the performance of companies that are expected to provide resources for & benefit from the increased adoption of telecommuting and remote workplaces.

"The ongoing pandemic led to the rapid adoption of the remote workplace framework. With more and more companies relying on technology to ensure business continuity, several industries such cloud computing, cybersecurity, digital communication and others have seen tremendous growth," said Rahul Sen Sharma, Managing Partner at Indxx. "The Indxx Flexible Workplace Index acts as an instrument to target this opportunity. Our product development team has been able to create one of the first indices that is truly reflective of this space. We are very excited to have another product with Tachlit tracking one of our indices."

As of September 15, 2020, the index has 47 constituents. It has a backtested date of December 31, 2015 and a live calculation date of July 09, 2020. Additional information can be found here.
