Indxx Japan E-Commerce Index Licensed by Global X Japan for an Exchange Traded Fund

New York – January 27, 2021 - Indxx is pleased to announce that the Indxx Japan E-Commerce Index (the “Index”), has been licensed by Japan based ETF issuer Global X Japan as the underlying benchmark for the Global X E-Commerce Japan ETF (JPX: 2627 JP Equity), which began trading today.

The Index (Ticker: IJPECMT) is designed to track the performance of companies that provide exposure to the internet commerce space.

Rahul Sen Sharma, Managing Partner at Indxx said, “Japan is amongst the largest markets for e-commerce in the world. Being a highly developed economy, with high internet penetration, Japan offers excellent infrastructure for the e-commerce industry. Its e-commerce sector is expected to continue growing rapidly in the years ahead. Our Index helps investors gain exposure to this high potential sector. We are very excited about our first launch in Japan, and about our growing relationship with the Global X family.”

Added Vaibhav Agarwal, Chief Revenue Officer at Indxx, “The Japan e-commerce market benefits from its technical advance consumers and highly developed distribution channel. The latter makes product delivery very convenient and boosts the e-commerce market. Identifying these advantages, more and more brick-and-mortar stores are shifting to online marketplaces. The Indxx Japan E-Commerce Index offers exposure to leading companies at the forefront of this transition to the internet economy. It aids investors in deriving benefits from the various segments of the ecommerce industry ranging from online marketplaces to subscriptions to digital payments to logistic REITs.”

Jooyoung Yun, CIO at Global X Japan, commented, “I am very delighted to launch the first thematic ETF investing in the e-commerce in Japan with Indxx. Global X Japan aims to be a pioneer in Japan's thematic ETF field and will continuously provide innovative and differentiated products to the market. Global X Japan ETFs will be the bellwether of diversity and innovation in Japan ETF market.”

As of January 27, 2021, the index has 28 constituents. It has a backtested date of April 29, 2016 and a live calculation date of December 23, 2020. Additional information can be found here.
