Indxx Launches the Indxx Junior Robotics & AI Index Series

New York – December 01, 2020 -Indxx is excited to announce the launch of the Indxx Junior Robotics & AI Index Series (the “Index Series”), which tracks the performance of companies that provide exposure to the robotics, industrial automation, and artificial intelligence sectors. The Index Series is comprised of the Indxx Global Junior Robotics & AI Index (Ticker: IGJRAI) and the Indxx US Junior Robotics & AI Index (Ticker: IUSJRAI).

“Our Indxx Global Robotics & Artificial Intelligence Thematic Index has been a very successful product globally, and we are pleased to launch these additional indices as the space has continued to grow,” said Rahul Sen Sharma, Managing Partner at Indxx. “Robotics and AI have significantly disrupted countless industries, increased productivity, and are the key enablers for the biggest technology, manufacturing and other companies globally. The Indxx Junior Robotics & AI Index Series will provide exposure to smaller, high growth and innovative companies that have the potential to grow exponentially.”

Added Vaibhav Agarwal, Chief Revenue Officer at Indxx, “Technology focused themes such as Robotics and Artificial Intelligence are compelling investment themes within the thematic investing domain. From making smart consumer products to autonomous carts to smarter drones, the use of these technologies is rapidly evolving, and more companies are emerging to provide such niche products and services. We have been able to create an index that effectively captures the emerging companies within this rapidly growing industry. We believe that the index will act as an excellent tool for investors to take advantage of the growth in these innovative technologies.”
